

China hosts the SCO Summit

Recently, China hosted the SCO (Shanghai Cooperation Organisation) summit. In this summit, the Chinese president Xi Jinping, Russian president Vlaminir Putin, and India's PM Narendra Modi met. Possible topics of discussion could've been the tariff war and the Russia-Ukraine war. This is also expected to boost India-China relations.

India closes at no. 1 in the international Astronomy Olympiad

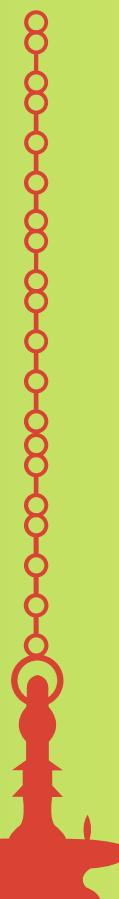

In the International Astronomy Olympiad, held in India, India won 4 gold medals and 1 silver medal. Twelve countries participated in the global event. Arush Mishra, Akshay Shrivastav, Banibrata Majee and Panini won the gold medal for India. While the silver medalist was Suman Gupta.

KIDOSCOPE

Pithu to be added as an official sport in MP

MP Sports & Welfare Department is going to include Pithu(Seven Stones) as an official sport in the Khelo MP Youth Games. It is also going to be supported by the Pithu Federation Of India. Just waiting for the rules to be made, then Pithu will feature as a professional sport in district level, divisional, and state level competitions of India.

HAPPY
DIWALI

Hello!

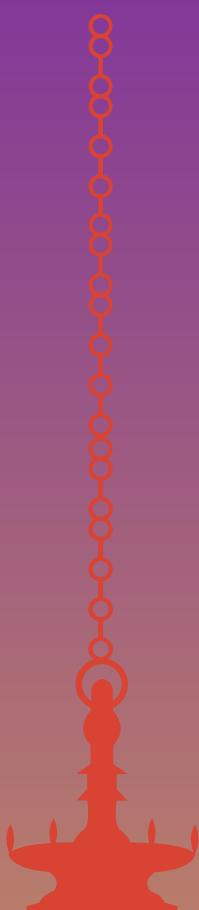

First of all, we're sorry that we weren't able to inform you we aren't releasing the September edition. But, now I would like to inform you all that Kidoscope is now a 2-monthly magazine. We're doing this so that we can provide you more quality content and keep entertaining you, it's just that it will now be once in 2 months. If you have anymore feedbacks or suggestions please DM at @kido_scope or email at info@kidoscope.co.in.

There was the India Pakistan match 3 times in this Asia Cup. Pakistan received a crushing defeat from India in every match. And, finally... India lifted the cup. But, on top of all, the handshake controversy, or “handshake drama” in Times Of India headlines, was the most aggressive incident of the Asia Cup and has made global headlines, we have talked about it in this edition.

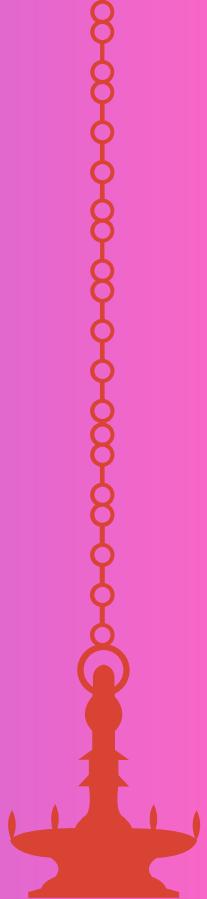

Also, HAPPY DIWALI.

Warm Regards,
Team Kidoscope

What do you see

Yellow yellow duck what do you see,
I see a brown dog looking at me,
Brown dog brown dog what do you see,
I see a green frog looking at me,
Green frog what do you see,
I see a pink cat looking at me,
Pink cat pink cat what do you see,
I see a brown horse looking at me,
Brown horse brown horse what do you see,
I see a girl asking me,
Myself myself what do you see,
I see my friend looking at me,
Everybody sees each other.

-Arha Shah, 2A, Udgam School For Children
(NS)

THE HANDSHAKE CONTROVERSY

WHERE IT ALL STARTED

IN THE GROUP STAGE MATCH OF INDIA VS PAKISTAN IN THE ASIA CUP 2025, THE INDIAN SKIPPER SURYAKUMAR YADAV DIDN'T SHAKE HANDS WITH THE PAKISTANI COUNTERPART SALMAN ALI AGHA DURING TOSS AND IN THE END OF THE MATCH (PICTURE NO. 5 AND 7). THIS WAS POSSIBLY DUE TO THE TRAGIC PAHALGAM ATTACK AND COURAGEOUS OPERATION SINDOOR. THIS MADE GLOBAL HEADLINES ALL AROUND THE GLOBE.

AGAIN AND AGAIN!

The same thing happened also in the super 4 and final match of India vs Pakistan in the Asia Cup 2025

THE PRESS CONFERENCE

In the post match press conference, the Indian skipper Surya Kumar Yadav (nicknamed SKY) was asked about the India Pakistan rivalry, where he cleared India's intent on the topic by saying 'What rivalry are you talking about? When me and my team step on the ground, the only thing I tell my team is "there is a lot of audience in the stands, we have the responsibility to entertain them; so, let's play some good cricket." Then, when he was asked that 'Was this the best game you have ever played?' He carefully diverted the topic to his debut match, saying that 'My best game was my debut match, when I stepped in in the Indian jersey for the first time, and I always thank the god for the same by closing my eyes during the national anthem.' Surya didn't use Pakistan's name even once in the press conference. This was, in my opinion, one of the best post match conferences in the history of Indian cricket.

Other Controversies

In the Super Four match, Haris Rauf, a Pakistani pacer, got an Indian batsman out and showed a plane crash with his hand, resembling Pakistan's claim that they shot Indian jets down during the May - June conflict (picture no. 1). Jasprit Bumrah did the same when he got Haris Rauf's wicket in the finals (picture no. 2).

Pakistani batter Farhan celebrated his fifty by acting to fire gunshots on India from his bat (picture no. 3).

Haris Rauf was caught relaxing and talking with Shaheen Afridi during the Indian national anthem (picture no. 4).

MOHSIN NAQVI TROPHY SCANDAL

Mohsin Naqvi is ACC (Asian Cricket Council) Chairman and Pakistan's interior minister was going to hand over the trophy to India after India defeated Pakistan in the final. But, BCCI refused to accept the trophy from Mohsin Naqvi because he is also the interior minister of Pakistan. 'We can't accept a trophy from a minister of a hostile country' said BCCI. Abhishek Sharma received the Player Of The Tournament and Tilak Verma received the Man Of The Match from the hosts (UAE), but skipper Suryakumar Yadav didn't collect the trophy and medals from ACC chairperson Mohsin Naqvi. And the Indian team didn't shake hands with Mohsin Naqvi on the stage. In the trophy ceremony, Indian celebrated by lifting an imaginary trophy and dancing (picture no. 6). Mohsin Naqvi reportedly took the trophy and the medals to his hotel room. 'If we don't collect the trophy and medals, it doesn't mean someone will run away with it' commented BCCI. 'Whom else do you shall give them the trophy?' Commented Mohsin Naqvi. Then he submitted the trophy and medals to the ACC office in Dubai and asked India to collect them from there, while BCCI refused and asked to drop the trophy directly to BCCI office.

